Catholic Social Teaching Corner

The Gospel this Sunday reminds us that sin and virtue co-exist in our world. How do we sow seeds of virtue and nurture them in ourselves and others? We do it through our actions: love and forgiveness rather than anger and retribution; peace rather than violence; sharing rather than hoarding. One great need is to help those coming out of jails and prisons to re-enter society. How can your parish help our sisters and brothers grow in virtue?

El Evangelio de este domingo nos recuerda que el pecado y la virtud coexisten en nuestro mundo ¿Cómo sembramos las semillas de virtud y las nutrimos en nosotros mismos y en otros? Lo hacemos a través de nuestras acciones: amor y perdón en lugar de conojo y venganza; paz en lugar de violencia; compartiendo en lugar de acumulando. Una gran necesidad es ayudar a aquellos que están saliendo de las cárceles y prisiones para que se reintegren a la sociedad ¿Cómo puede su parroquia ayudar a nuestros hermanos y hermanas a crecer en la virtud?

Friday E-Pistle Gospel Meditation

A parable is an interesting literary form that throws together or compares familiar events or items, while also providing a spiritual teaching. The parable of the grain and the weeds involves a concern about non-believers who are part of the early community of followers of Jesus. The disciples are restrained from removing them. How quick are we to try to root out someone we perceive as less perfect or less desirable than ourselves? Do we make room for God's greatness and counterintuitive way?

Una parábola es una forma literaria interesante que junta o compara eventos o temas familiares, mientras que provee también de una enseñanza espiritual. La parábola de la semilla y la mala hierba aborda la preocupación sobre los que no creen que son parte de una comunidad temprana de seguidores de Jesús. A los discípulos se les prohíbe removerlos ¿Qué tan ansiosos estamos por remover a alguien a quien percibimos como menos perfectos o menos deseables que otros? ¿Hacemos espacio para la grandeza de Dios y sus maneras ajenas a la intuición?
