To proclaim Jesus as Messiah is to recognize Him as God's anointed; the one who saves us from sin and death, from despair and loneliness. It also means entering into the paradox of the cross with him: salvation from sin and death is through death; salvation from loneliness and despair is through submission, denial and loss. To be one with Christ means being willing to accept the cross – dying to self for others, even for our enemies. Are we willing to do this?

Proclamar a Jesús como el Mesías es reconocerlo a Él como el ungido de Dios; aquel que nos salva del pecado y la muerte, de la desesperación y la soledad. También significa entrar en la paradoja de la cruz con Él: salvación del pecado y la muerte a través de la muerte; la salvación de la tristeza y la soledad y de la desesperación a través de la sumisión, la negación y la pérdida. Ser uno con Cristo significa estar dispuesto(a) a aceptar la cruz – morir para nosotros mismos por los demás, incluso por nuestros enemigos ¿Estamos dispuestos a hacerlo?

Often we may just want to fit in and blend with the crowd. Are we recognizable Christian witnesses? Do others encounter Christ through us by our example and words? Are we clothed with Christ doing God's will or do we follow our own desires when the path is difficult?

Con frecuencia sólo queremos encajar con los demás ¿Somos reconocibles como testigos Cristianos? ¿Encuentran los demás a Cristo a través de nosotros por nuestro ejemplo y palabra? ¿Hacemos la voluntad de Dios revestidos de Cristo o seguimos nuestros propios deseos cuando el camino es difícil?
